

Reveal the Secrets Your Subconscious Holds Inside

Hints to decoding your personal metaphors

SELF IMAGE—If you draw a cute or comic figure, it shows good nature, a sense of humor, diplomacy. A grotesque or ugly figure shows you have difficulty in establishing close relationships. A SUN indicates a strong dominant, self-confident personality.

HOME—If you draw something inside the box, your interests lie within the home. If you draw OUTSIDE the box, your interests are not within the home.

Draw both inside and outside the box...you're ambivalent. (Which is pretty normal.) If you make this box into a grotesque face, it shows a fear of home and/or marriage.

CONFIDENCE—If you draw above the centerline, you are adjusted to your environment and feel secure. A ship is common. If the ship is moving, you're very secure.

If you draw BELOW the line, it shows the opposite; a need to work on confidence and self image.

If you draw both ABOVE AND BELOW the line which part of the drawing is the most significant or important?

If you draw a person drowning, you worry about the future.

If you make a chain or pattern out of the centerline, you are hard working, conscientious and seldom make a mistake.

MAIN INTEREST—What you draw in this blank square is your main interest.

If you draw a person of the same sex as you...your main interest is you. LANDSCAPES OR STILL LIFE shows artistic ability.

If you leave this square blank...you should take up a hobby!
