

Discover your Hidden Metaphors Bonus

SOCIAL ADAPTABILITY—If you go along with this symbol and duplicate or echo its shape (moon, round face, sunrise) it shows ability to get along with various types of people socially. You have good manners and always get invited back.

If you fight the symbol and make ugly or “squarish” shapes or forms, you don’t mix well at parties and smoke or drink or bite your nails too much. You are possessive in boy-girl relationships.

ATTITUDE TOWARD SEX—If you use this symbol as a solid shape (building, barber pole, animal’s neck) it shows a wholesome, uninhibited attitude toward sex.

If you make the space between the two lines blank and obscure the symbol, it shows you’re modest, shy and generally nervous about the whole miserable business.

A tree indicates an identification of sex with marriage, home and children. Fruit on the tree indicates a positive liking and desire for children. If you draw a rocket ship.... watch out!

Take another look at the pictures to discover even more hidden meaning

- A person who draws people is social.
- Grotesque or frightening faces show an unsocial person who gets along with others only on his own terms.
- If you draw outside the square boxes—it shows a rebellious nature.
- Small, detailed drawings indicate perfectionism and perseverance.
- If you use actual words or write titles, you are intellectual.