

GURU

(As learned from John Weir)

I was talking with an elderly man the other day that had traveled extensively around the world.

He told of a trip he took when he was quite young. He went in search of the truth and he heard about a Guru who lived way up in the mountains. Soon he found that he could reach this mountaintop only by hiking and climbing quite some distance. He immediately set off on the journey. He climbed and climbed and finally found the residence of the Guru.

He went inside and sure enough, there sat a very old man who looked at him and smiled.

The man sat down across from the Guru and waited. For half an hour, maybe longer, the Guru just looked at him and continued smiling and nodding.

Finally, the Guru stood to leave and the man said, "Wait, I've come all this way to find the truth. Do you have more for me than just a nod and a smile?"

The Guru looked directly into his eyes and said, "How do you spell Guru?"

Well, that's easy for all of us to do isn't it?

And therein lies the truth--G-U-R-U (Gee, You Are You!)

Be the best YOU U can B!!
